
HYDROGRAPHIC OFFICE
Price Six pence
THE ISLAND OF
St. PAUL
North Pt. 47° 13' 55" N. 60 8 20 W.
Soundings in Fathoms
Approx. H.W.F.&C. VIIIh. 0m. Springs rise 4, Neaps 3 feet.
The island is composed of Granitic Rocks dipping to the S.W. at an angle of about 45° and mostly covered with dwarf Spruce trees.
Bearings to the Views Magnetic.
Surveyed by
CAPTAIN H.W. BAYFIELD R.N.
1836.
Nautic Miles
10 Cables 0 1 2 3
Variation 26° 30' W. (1860)
June 30th 1 knot
The Southern Light obscured between these bearings
North Pt.
Light F. 140 ft. high. vis. 20 m.
Magnetic
Provision Post
Trinity Cove
Atlantic Cove
Light Rev. every min. 140 ft. high during Fogs visible 20 miles
Northern Light obscured between these bearings
St. Paul to the Westward
St. Paul to the Northeastward
St. Paul to the Eastward
St. Paul to the S.W.
Atlantic Cove
Trinity Cove
J. & C. Walker Sculp.